

I waited so long for this Do Not Call list to come along. This is freedom of choice. Let the telemarketers call the people who did not intentionally block them from calling. Next thing you know they will be calling my cell phone....and I will have to pay for the unwanted call. Please, I urge you to keep the do not call in place.